

Great Books to Read List

These books are broken up into three sections based upon the reading difficulty: Fair, Medium, and Difficult. None of the books however, are “easy.” They should all be thought about and considered while being read.

*Books with an * beside them are highly recommended.*

Fair	Medium	Difficult
“The Prayer of Jesus” – Hank Hanegraaff	* “Don’t Waste Your Life” – John Piper	“Reasonable Faith” – William Lane Craig
“The Church God Blesses” – Jim Cymbala	“The Great Divorce” – C.S. Lewis	“The Resurrection of the Son of God” – N.T. Wright
“The Holy Spirit” – Billy Graham	“The Potter’s Freedom” – James R. White	“The Divine Conspiracy” – Dallas Willard
“When God Whispers Your Name” – Max Lucado	“Chosen But Free” – Norman Geisler	“The Creator and the Cosmos” – Hugh Ross
“The Book of Romance” – Tommy Nelson	“Can Man Live Without God?” – Ravi Zacharias	* “The God Who Justifies” – James R. White
“The Jesus I Never Knew” – Phillip Yancey	“Jesus Among Other Gods” – Ravi Zacharias	“The Pursuit of God” and “The Pursuit of Man” – Tozer
* “Resurrection” – Hank Hanegraaff	“From Creation to the Cross” – Albert Baylis
“Know What You Believe” – Paul E. Little	“The Abolition of Man” – C.S. Lewis
“Know Why You Believe” – Paul E. Little	“Scaling the Secular City” – JP Moreland
“More Than A Carpenter” – Josh McDowell	“The Historical Jesus” – Gary Habermas
“Five Things Every Christian Needs to Know” – R.C. Sproul	“The Risen Jesus & Future Hope” – Gary Habermas
	“Hearing God” – Dallas Willard
	“Approaching Jehova’s Witnesses in Love” – Wilbur Lingle
	* “Mere Christianity” – C.S. Lewis
	“The Trinity” – Edward Henry Bickersteth	